OLD BUSINESS:

Generator

There was discussion on whether to repair or replace the generator. Ms. Watson moved to approve up to $1500 for Kitsap Diesel to trouble-shoot the generator. Mr. Morris seconded and the motion passed unanimously.

Audit

According to written information provided for the meeting by Ms. Carlson, she has corrected the 2018 and 2019 on-line filing with the state Auditor's Office. She believed the issue was the final SRF payment. The check was written in 2018 but it was not cashed until 2019. She is going to take a look at the 2020 report to be sure it is correct and then start on the 2021 report.

IRS/Account

As discussed briefly at the February regular meeting and in depth in the February working session, Ms. Carlson contacted the CPA, Tara Dunford, as recommended by Ms. Montgomery. She received a quote of $165 per hour for her services. After Ms. Carlson explained our situation, she explained the conditions and work she was able to do for us. Ms. Dunford said she thought that 10 hours would get us a long way toward sorting out the issues. Ms. Carlson told her she would present the results of their conversation to the Board, including a request for $1650 retainer to cover the 10 hours. It was Ms. Carlson's recommendation to the Board that we accept this proposal.

Mr. Morris moved to hire Ms. Tara Dunford for 10 hours of work with a retainer of $1650 toward resolving the issues with the IRS. Deb seconded and the motion passed unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS:

Theft from Drop Box

Mr. Morris reported that we have some thefts from the drop box. We have had four customers in the past month saying that their checks were not received. The customers stated their checks had not cleared. They were asked to check with their bank and all have sent replacement checks. This is also the time frame when the homeless person was found in the storage shed. Nothing can be proved.

WASWD Spring Conference

The WASWD Spring Conference is coming up. Sarah had indicated she was not able to go. Mr. Morris said he was not available either, but Ms. Watson asked to go.
