TRAILS END WATER DISTRICT 2 4-11-23 ZOOM MEETING 7 PM MINUTES

OLD BUSINESS:

- Website: Jeremy Moff explained the "roadmap" approach to setting up the website. He showed a power point presentation which included several options and levels of service. Commissioners agreed to discuss the options at the next working session and have a recommendation for discussion at the May meeting.
- Generator: Most of the work has been done. Waiting on parts, Deb will follow-up.

NEW BUSINESS:

- Fire Department: They want 1" connection for the bunkhouse. Is it in our best interest to have water in that house. They need a separate connection to provide fire suppression. Since we are already going to be collection on two accounts, can we provide the hook-up at no cost? Anne says no,
- 2022 Audit: Sarah attended an on-line training on changes for the 2022 audit. She has begun work on it. The due date is 5/30/23.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

A member of the public attended the meeting to ask for extra time to pay a bill. The customer apologized for the situation and outlined extenuating circumstances with a plan to bring the account current. Commissioners conferred with Ms. Montgomery on options. Folloing discussion, the Commissioners agreed to the proposal in the short term and put it on the agenda for May

GOOD OF THE ORDER:

Denise will be out on leave beginning the 21st. She will continue to answer the phone as she can.

ADJOURNMENT:

Ms. Watson moved to adjourn the meeting at 8:32.
